

Hannah Prayed, So Should You

1 Samuel 1:1-28

Grace Fellowship Church / Pastor Brian Fannin / May 12, 2024

1 Samuel 1:1-28 “There was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim of the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Elkanah the son of Jeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephrathite. <sup>2</sup> He had two wives. The name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other, Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

<sup>3</sup> Now this man used to go up year by year from his city to worship and to sacrifice to the Lord of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the Lord. <sup>4</sup> On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> But to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the Lord had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup> And her rival used to provoke her grievously to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup> So it went on year by year. As often as she went up to the house of the Lord, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. <sup>8</sup> And Elkanah, her husband, said to her, ‘Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?’

<sup>9</sup> After they had eaten and drunk in Shiloh, Hannah rose. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. <sup>10</sup> She was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord and wept bitterly. <sup>11</sup> And she vowed a vow and said, ‘O Lord of hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your servant and remember me and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a son, then I will give him to the Lord all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head.’

<sup>12</sup> As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. <sup>13</sup> Hannah was speaking in her heart; only her lips moved, and her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli took her to be a drunken woman. <sup>14</sup> And Eli said to her, ‘How long will you go on being drunk? Put your wine away from you.’ <sup>15</sup> But Hannah answered, ‘No, my lord, I am a woman troubled in spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. <sup>16</sup> Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for all along I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation.’ <sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered, ‘Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant your petition that you have made to Him.’ <sup>18</sup> And she said, ‘Let your servant find favor in your eyes.’ Then the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

<sup>19</sup> They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the Lord; then they went back to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the Lord remembered her. <sup>20</sup> And in due time Hannah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Samuel, for she said, ‘I have asked for him from the Lord.’

<sup>21</sup> The man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the Lord the yearly sacrifice and to pay his vow. <sup>22</sup> But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, ‘As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, so that he may appear in the presence of the Lord and dwell there forever.’ <sup>23</sup> Elkanah her husband said to her, ‘Do what seems best to you; wait until you have weaned him; only, may the Lord establish His word.’ So the woman remained and nursed her son until she weaned him. <sup>24</sup> And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and she brought him to the house of the Lord at Shiloh. And the child was young. <sup>25</sup> Then they slaughtered the bull, and they brought the child to Eli. <sup>26</sup> And she said, ‘Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the Lord. <sup>27</sup> For this child I prayed, and the Lord has granted me my petition that I made to Him. <sup>28</sup> Therefore I have lent him to the Lord. As long as he lives, he is lent to the Lord.’”

What can we learn from Hannah that translates to your life, today?

I. Hannah prayed in her pain and so should you.

- a. She was barren (the Lord closed her womb)
- b. She was mocked (what Peninnah did was remind her, bringing grief)
- c. She was weak & helpless

II. Hannah prayed boldly and so should you.

- a. Hannah asked for what she wanted, a son. When you feel desperate, you pray desperately. And desperate praying is what you need to do—not perfunctory prayer.
- b. When we turn to prayer as the last resort, we reveal what we actually believe—where we actually place our trust.
- c. When we turn to prayer as a last resort, we minimize what the Cross has done for us.

You have an audience with the King, any time you choose to go there.

Hebrews 4:16 “Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.”

- d. Prayer is talking to God, who answers us, because He loves us. He wants us to come to Him. Only in coming to Him, consistently, do we learn that He answers us.

III. Hannah left a legacy from her praying and you can too.

Hannah prayed, and Hannah did what she said she would do—commit her son to the Lord.

What would happen if you started asking your children to pray with you?

- They would learn that you know there is someone more important and more powerful than you. Parents, give that gift to your child. God is bigger and better than you. Help them fall in love with the one who loves them most.
- They would learn to deal with life’s challenges by first going to God.
- They would learn a life of dependence and trust, instead a pursuit of independence and influence. You want your kids to be successful? Pray that they will love Jesus more than they love you, or anyone else.
